DON'T HAVE POWERPOINT?

WELCOME, APRIL!

April is National Poetry Month.

It is a time for teachers, parents, and students to share beautiful poetry!

You can also edit and teach your storytime in Google Slides!

14 ILLUSTRATED NURSERY RHYMES

Every nursery rhyme is illustrated with colorful, engaging clipart. These could easily double as posters to put around the library or classroom.

FUN FACTS

SING A SONG

You can sing
some nursery

Library Lesson—Nursery Rhymes

DIFFERENT VERSIONS

For hundreds of years, children have sung nursery rhymes.

Because of this, you may have heard different versions of the nursery rhymes.

DID YOU KNOW...?

"Wee Willie Winkie" comes from Scotland.

It is about a boy who runs through town and makes sure all the children are tucked in bed for the night.

Moves slides between Parts I and II to extend or shorten your storytime, differentiate between grade levels, and keep storytime interesting for you if you are teaching this storytime over and over.

EDITABLE TEXT

The slide is titled "TRIVIA QUESTION" in purple text. On the left is a cartoon girl with a pink face, yellow hair, and purple shoes. To the right is a trivia question: "In 'Hey, Diddle Diddle,' who does the dish run away with?" with four options: a. the cow, b. the moon, c. the cat, and d. the spoon. A note at the bottom right says "(answer on next slide)".
