Fantastical Creatures

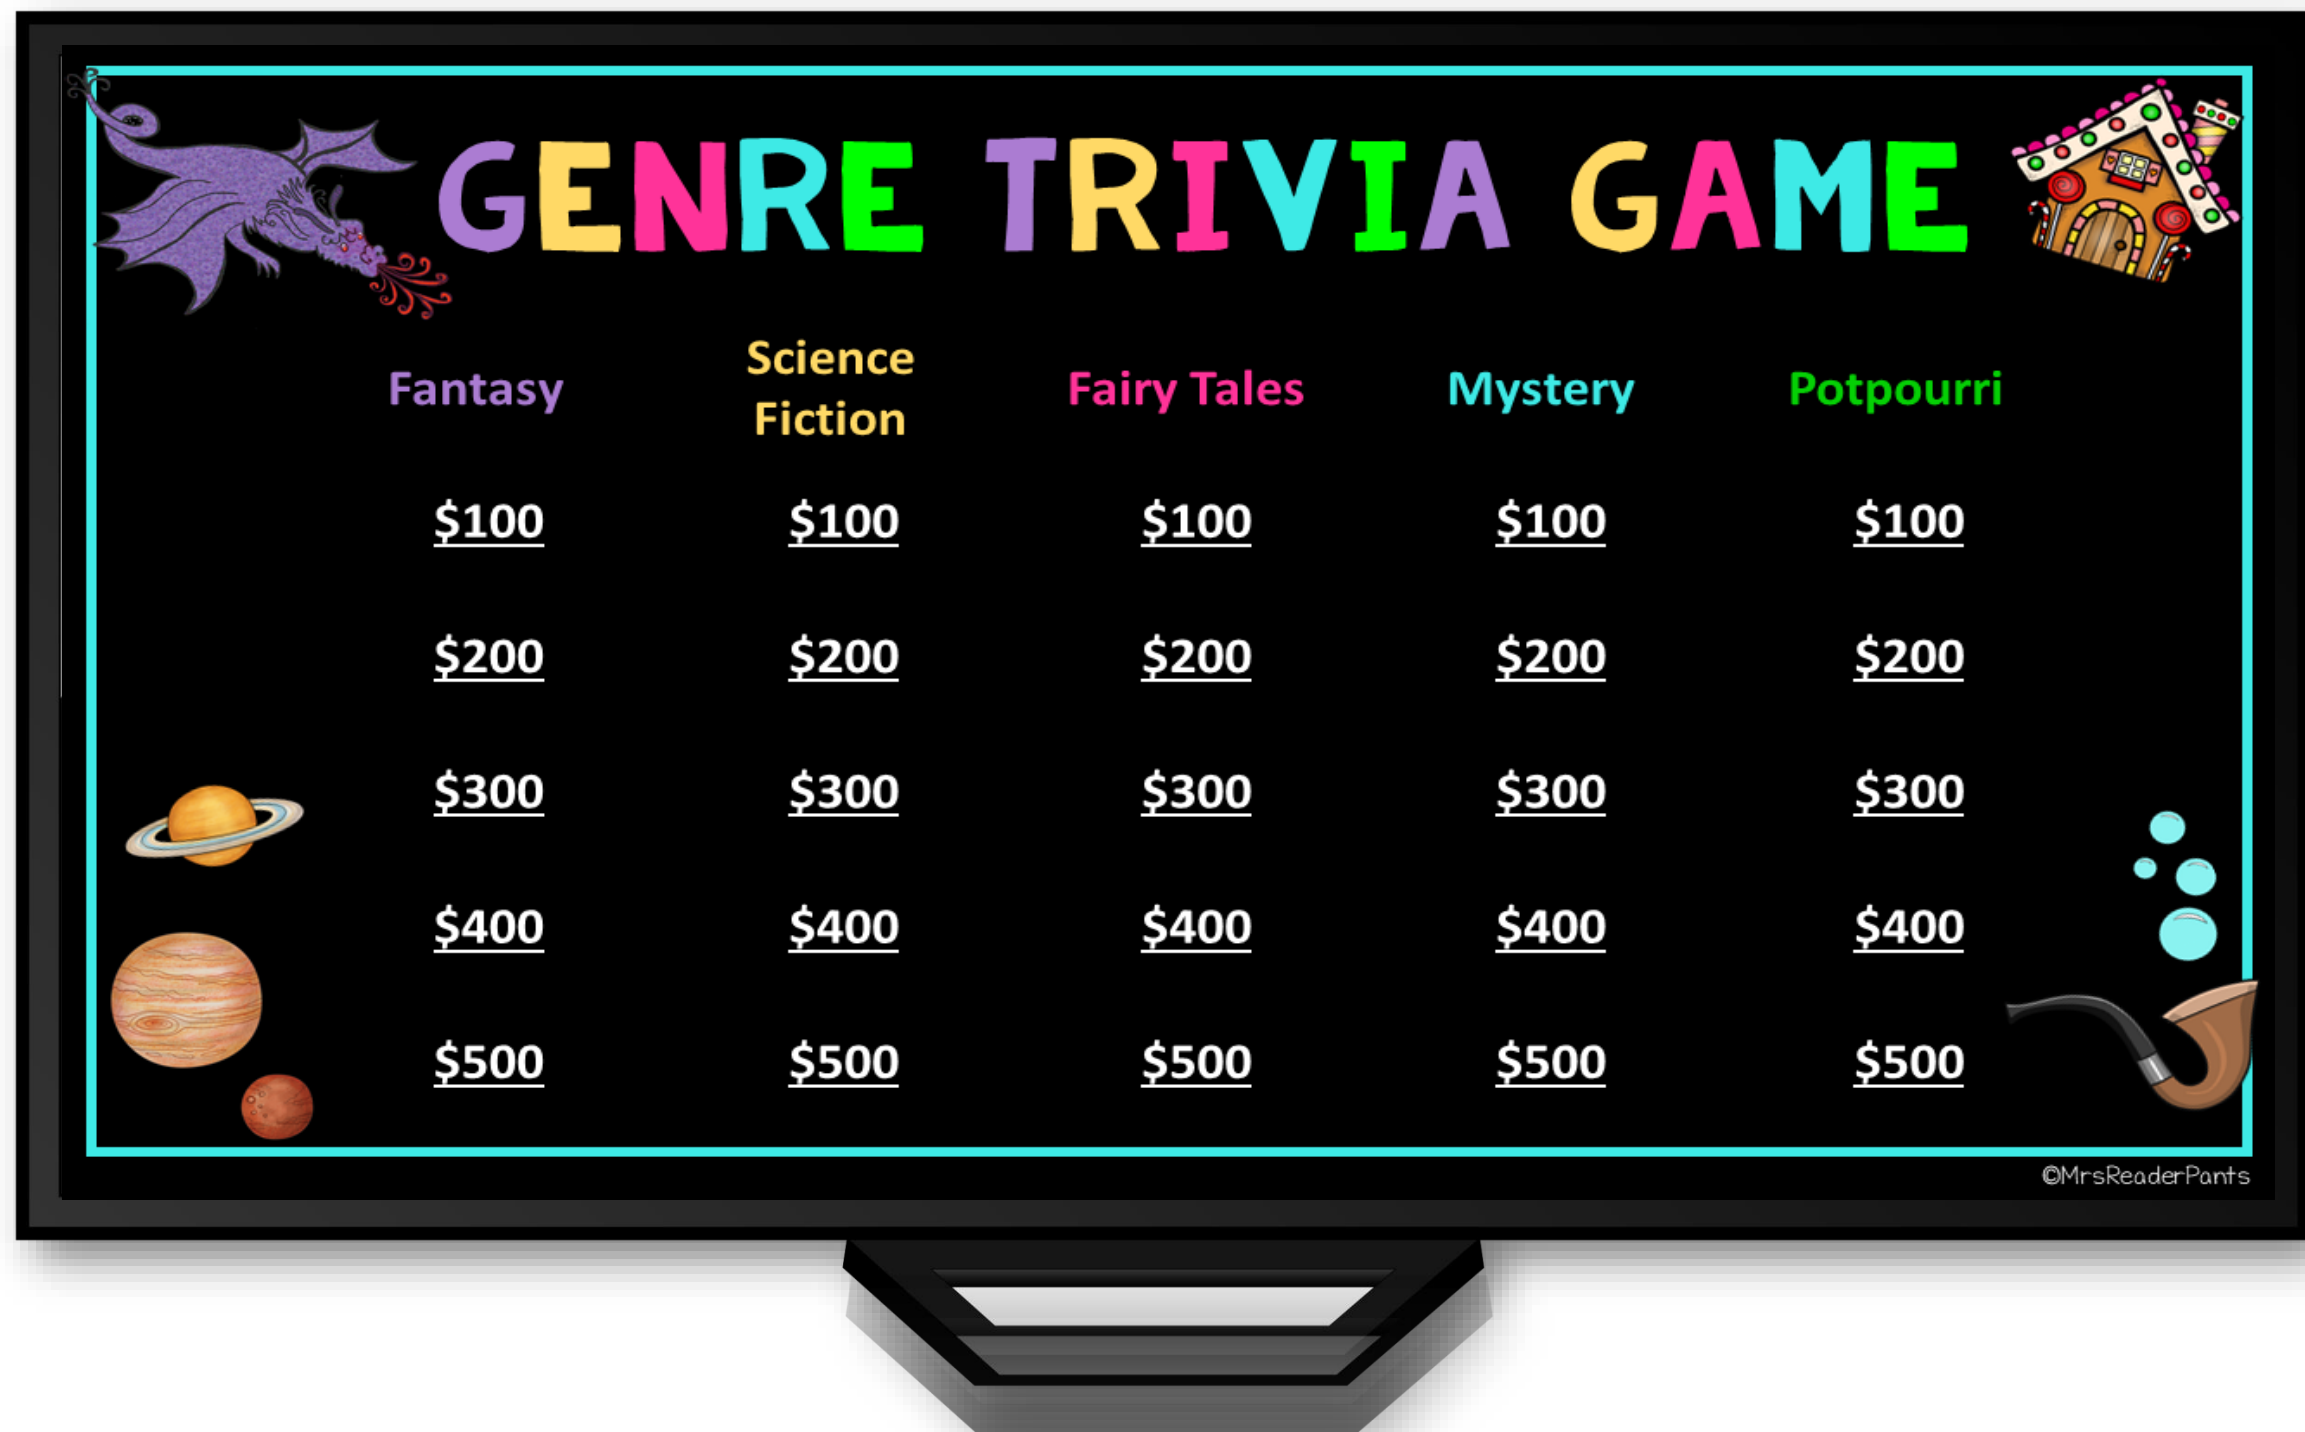

- Fantasy genres often have creatures that do not exist in our world
- May include unicorns, trolls, elves, witches, wizards, and many others.
- Anthropomorphic animals are those that talk, wear clothes, and/or have other human traits.
- The fantasy creatures may or may not have magic; instead, they often have unique abilities such as excellent archery skills, magical blood, ability to fly, and extraordinary strength.

- Fantasy
- Science Fiction
- Historical Fiction
- Mystery
- Summer Reading (various genres)

These are genre-themed, editable booktalk templates. They include characteristics of different genres and real book examples of each. Use with PPT or Google Slides.
