REVIEW 32 GENRES

GRADES 4-7

THIS INTERACTIVE CARD GAME INCLUDES

32 cards (print 4 per page)

2 differentiated versions

Google Slides, PDF, + PowerPoint versions

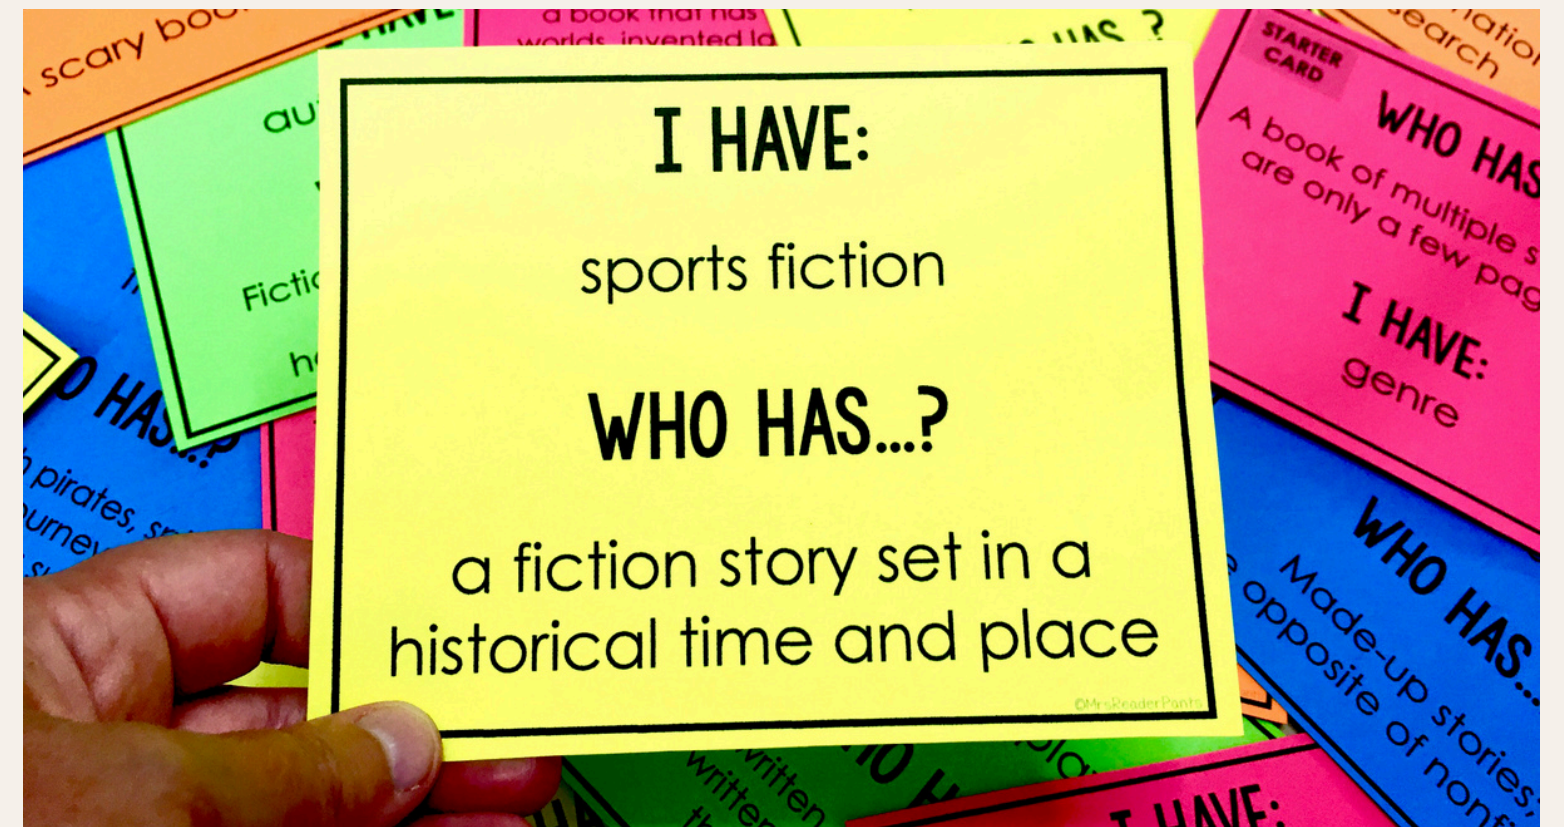

Editable text

EASY TO DIFFERENTIATE!

Version 1 includes pictures and card numbers in the lower-right corner. These features help support ELLs, younger readers, and students who need visual scaffolding.

Version 2 is more challenging. It does not include pictures or a card number in the corner.

*Both versions include the same text, so they can be used together at the same time.

EASY PREP

1. Print the cards on colorful cardstock.
2. Use a paper slicer to cut cards.
3. Mix the cards.
4. Ready to play!

*One set of 32 cards (8 pages) works for up to 32 students.

NEED TO EDIT? NO PROBLEM!

Both versions of these I Have,
Who Has cards are editable in PowerPoint and Google Slides.

If you want to replace a genre, you can!

If the picture on the cards does not match the genre, you can replace that card with the “no images” version.

INCLUDES ANSWER KEY

No matter which version you use, you can follow along on the answer key.

The cards in both versions are in the same order and include the same text.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

YES! It is 100% ready to teach right out of the box.

The cards are ready to print as-is. Printing and cutting the 8 pages will take only minutes.

WHAT EXACTLY IS EDITABLE?

Editable:
all text

NOT Editable:
all images

CAN I USE THIS WITH MULTIPLE CLASSES?

This game is easy to reuse with multiple classes, year after year.

I recommend printing at least one extra set of cards in case any cards get torn or lost.

READY TO PLAY?

This game is ready-to-go for next period if you need it! No planning for you, and students are so engaged in this interactive game! Win-win!
